Gig Description:

Welcome to Orakleum - the space where truth, energy, and symbolism meet.

I am Damir, your intuitive guide, spiritual decoder, and symbolic messenger. Through oracle and tarot cards, sacred symbols, planetary archetypes, runes, and vibrational wisdom, I translate subtle energies into powerful guidance.

Each session is unique, deeply aligned with your essence. Whether you seek answers, alignment, direction, or deep transformation, I will tune in, channel your soul's current frequency, and return it as sacred insight.

I do not sugarcoat. What I give is the truth your soul is ready to hold. Messages come through from deep symbolic layers, archetypal forces, and the unseen energetic currents around you.

You may ask specific questions or allow a general reading to reveal what is hidden.

You will receive:

- PDF or image-based message

- Symbol, mantra, or energetic signature (depending on package)
- Optional runes or planetary guidance

Let this be more than a reading. Let it be a transmission. A mirror. A path.

FAQs:

Q1: Can I ask about anything?

A: Yes - love, purpose, energy, timing, even dreams. I tune into your intention and your field.

Q2: What if I don't have a specific question?

A: That's perfectly fine. I can offer a general reading and let the energy reveal what matters most now.

Q3: Are your readings based on intuition or fixed meanings?

A: I blend symbolic meaning with deep intuition. Each card or symbol becomes a mirror for your soul's message.

Q4: Is this live or written?

A: All readings are written (PDF or image). No live calls are included, unless stated as an extra.

Q5: Can I order this for someone else as a gift?

A: Absolutely. Just let me know it's a gift and I can personalize the message accordingly.

Q6: What if a symbol or message repeats in different readings?

A: That's often a sign that energy is persistent and needs to be honored. Repetition is part of the language of spirit.
